

CHATHAM HOUSE

B | Energy Security Initiative
at BROOKINGS

COP15 Official Side Event

Delivering Climate Security

What the security community needs from a global climate regime

Thursday 17th December, noon – 1:30pm

A Porta eta 1792, Kongens Nytorv 17, 1050 København K (Metro: Kongens Nytorv)

“There is little scientific dispute that if we do nothing, we will face more drought, famine and mass displacement that will fuel more conflict for decades. For this reason...it is military leaders in my country and others who understand that our common security hangs in the balance.” President Obama
Nobel Peace Prize Winner Acceptance Speech
December 10, 2009

Join leading climate security experts for a side event exploring climate change impacts on national security and how the global climate regime can address this threat.

Experts:

Brigadier General (ret) Wendell Chris King, Dean of Academics, U.S. Army Command and General Staff College

Major General (ret) Muniruzzaman, President, Bangladesh Institute for Peace and Security Studies

Alexandros Papaioannou, Policy Adviser, Policy Planning Unit, NATO

Nick Mabey, CEO and Founding Director, E3G

Cleo Paskal, Associate Fellow, Chatham House

Chaired by:

Tom Spencer, Vice Chairman, Institute for Environmental Security and Project Co-ordinator, Climate Change & the Military

For more information please contact Meera Shah on +44 207 234 9880.

Related materials are available on E3G's website.