Web link

Description

Moderated by Kate Levick, programme leader of the Sustainable Finance Program at E3G, the discussion will seek to answer the following questions: Where do public and private finance stand on the climate crisis in 2020, how do they interrelate, and where must they go on the road to COP26?

Scaling Up Climate Finance in the Context of COVID-19

Date: Wednesday, 18 November 2020 | 8:00 GMT

Host: E3G

Audience: Private, Invite-only

Key Contact: Zach Malik, zach.malik@e3g.org, @MalikZacharias

LCAW theme: Green, Fair, Resilient Recovery

Web listing

Description

The roundtable discussion will aim to create a new broader vision of what climate finance is and what essential mechanisms and initiatives could provide or spur the finance and investment needed for the climate transition in the context of COVID-19. The discussion will focus on the environmental side of 'better recovery', with the slow onset climate crisis as one of the many potential future shocks we need to protect ourselves from.

Key Contact: Ronan Palmer, ronan.palmer@e3g.org, @ronan_wifi

LCAW theme: Green, Fair and Resilient Recovery

Web link

Description

The global economic crisis has sparked a lot of debate about the nature of the recovery we need, and how climate and resilience can be incorporated into it. The “Fair, Green and Resilient Recovery” theme in November’s LCAW seeks to explore what this means in practice for climate, and understand what needs to be done if it is to become a reality.
